JCCPGH ISRAEL ENGAGEMENT SERIES

JCC ISRAEL SERIES WILL CONTINUE DESPITE THREAT OF PROTESTS

The Jewish Community Center of Greater Pittsburgh's Israel engagement series, "Come Curious Leave Wiser" returns TONIGHT with a dynamic discussion about the recent elections in Israel.

Israeli Elections: Fear, Identity and Hope in a Polarized World begins at 7 pm at the JCC's Squirrel Hill facility, 5738 Forbes Avenue (enter on Darlington Road).

The JCC's security team is monitoring threats of protests and counter protests ahead of the event.

The JCC of Greater Pittsburgh is committed to a fostering brave, welcoming space for hard conversations about Israel and related issues. The Come Curious, Leave Wiser series is educational and nonpartisan; no speaker or program implies endorsement of any political party, candidate, policy or single viewpoint.

Over the course of the 6-part series, participants will be presented with a wide range of perspectives, some of which they may agree with, and some they may strongly disagree with. That tension is part of the intended learning and ideally will strengthen our communal muscle for constructive dialogue across differences.
