

High Holidays of Hope at the JCC

Free and open to everyone—no matter your membership or faith

On Rosh Hashanah Rededicate Yourself to Social Justice

Monday, September 10
2-3 PM

The shofar (ram's horn) will be our social justice call to action

On Yom Kippur Find Comfort and Inspiration

Wednesday, September 19
2-3 PM

We will recite Yizkor and Kaddish memorial prayers for our own losses and our community losses

Be inspired by these community upstanders:

Standing Up for Opportunity for All
Zack Block, Executive Director
Repair The World Pittsburgh

Standing Up for Immigrants
Betty Cruz, Director
Change Agency

Standing Up for Queer Rights
Jake Goodman, Executive Director
Opportunity Fund

Standing Up for Food Justice
Jake Seltman, Executive Director
Grow Pittsburgh

Standing Up for Creative Community
Janera Solomon, Executive Director
Kelly Strayhorn Theater

Mourning is the Other Side of Love
David Silvasy
Doctoral Practicum Intern
Jewish Family and Community Services

My Life's Work After My Two Sons Were Murdered by Gun Violence
Geraldine Massey MS PRC
Family Counselor/Outreach Specialist
Center of Life, Hazelwood

Rebuilding After the Trauma of the Franklin Avenue Massacre
Pastor Janet Hellner-Burris
Christian Church of Wilkinsburg
President, Wilkinsburg Sanctuary Project

Casual Dress • RSVPs requested
For Rosh Hashanah: tinyurl.com/jccpghrh
For Yom Kippur: tinyurl.com/jccpghyk

For more information: Rabbi Ron Symons rsymons@jccpgh.org • 412-697-3235

JCC of Greater Pittsburgh
Katz Performing Arts Center
5738 Darlington Road

Makom HaLev