

Spiritual Leaders: We Have To Talk...

About Census 2020

Every person counts and should be counted!

Thursday, February 20, 2020

9:30-11 am

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, 616 N. Highland Avenue • John Knox Room

Our religious traditions insist that every person counts.

It is our job as spiritual leaders to make sure that every person is counted.

- Interfaith teachings about the value of every person
- Presentations by civic leaders on the ins and outs of how Census 2020 will work
- Important information about why all of us care about a complete count in Southwest PA
- Ways your community members can mobilize through part-time jobs
- Ample time to be in conversation with colleagues

Light Refreshments

RSVP at casp.org/census by Tuesday, February 18

For more information:

Rev. Liddy Barlow, Christian Associates of Southwest PA • lbarlow@casp.org

Rabbi Ron Symons, JCC Center for Loving Kindness • rsymons@jccpgh.org

