Looking for Change-Makers, World-Builders, Tikkun Olam Trendsetters, Leaders, and Volunteers

Calling all Jewish high-schoolers!

Samuel M. Goldston Teen Philanthropy Project

The Samuel M. Goldston Teen Philanthropy Project is a program for 9th-12th graders, focused on philanthropy, social justice, and volunteerism in theory and practice. Together, a cohort of approximately twenty teens will explore philanthropy and social justice as Jewish concepts under the umbrella of tikkun olam—world repair. Together they will:

- participate in monthly Sunday-afternoon workshops
- attend one overnight retreat
- identify problems in their community/communities
- engage with local non-profits to learn about non-profit management and development
- contribute, allocate, and fundraise for local non-profits
- learn how philanthropy and social justice are important Jewish values
- meet, learn, and interact with their peers
- learn how to be a leader in their communities

For more information and instructions on how to apply, please email Maria Carson at mcarson@jccpgh.org or text/call 630-740-5398.
