Music And Memories Come Alive in a Once in a Lifetime Concert Experience

PITTSBURGH, Pa - The Greater Pittsburgh community is invited to a special concert by an Israeli band that lived through the horrors of the 10/7 Hamas attack.

Israeli-touring band, Shufuni, will be performing Thursday, August 1, 2024, 7-9 pm, at Beth El Congregation of the South Hills 1900 Cochran Rd, Pittsburgh, PA 15220.

The concert will be a unique and moving experience as Shufuni's four traveling band members express through music and stories how the events of October 7 and the days following have altered their lives and, in many ways, their identities.

Shufuni lost members of the band as well as their audience who were murdered during the horrific attack by Hamas. Four band members will be performing and speaking at the August 1 concert.

The concert and accompanying Q & A are open to everyone 16 years and older. The event is in partnership with Moving to Our Center (MTOC), and the JCC Association of North America (JCCA). It is free to attend but registration is required. Register here.

More about Shufuni:

Shufuni was established in 2022 to promote young artists coming from Sderot, an area renowned for its music scene, to share the unique voice of Israel's southern communities. Current members include folk singer/songwriter Daniel Waiss, soul-folk singer Linor Ein Gedi, guitarist, drummer and music educator Rotem Meir Levi, and performer Mira Semandoyev, who recently appeared in the finals of the Israeli Idol show, Hakochav Haba.

Interviews will be available for this event. For media inquiries please contact: Fara Marcus fmarcus@jccpgh.org
