

High School Juniors and Seniors: You could win $5,000 by telling us about your good work

The Caplan-Lieber Human Relations Scholarship Award

Students:

- Do you lead a student-initiated program in your school or community?
- Do you work to address divisions in society based on race, color, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, class, religion, disability, sex, ancestry, national origin, bullying or other factors?
- Do you collaborate with others to combat prejudice and foster good relations between diverse groups within the school and/or community?
- Do you know a school professional who will write a brief recommendation for you?

School Professionals: you could win $500 for your school by writing a recommendation for a student who wins

- Do you know a Junior or Senior who fits the description above?
- Can you write a brief recommendation for that student?

Deadline for both essay and recommendation is April 30, 2025 at 12 noon.
Please note that every essay needs to be accompanied by a school professional recommendation.

<https://jccpgh.org/caplan-lieber-scholarship-award/>
For additional information, please contact Linda McCullough at lmccullough@jccpgh.org

